Thanks for the god wishes. I worry about Joyce & Montie taking such a long road trip although it will be fun. I'm still hobbling around & think that's the way it will be--taking PT & OT some.

The story I heard was that Lucinda carried a bloody shirt that was from her brother who had been shot defending her honor. She had a brother named John that visited Moss Point. I remember at some point hearing that a Baptist preacher took in ophrans & got some pg. He ran away at about 13 when Lucinda married Mr. Leanord(sp?) & lived with an aunt who taught him how to read & he picked cotton. somehow he & Lula met and married--their was some thing about them being cousins they went to south carolina then florida then to MP where the only job he could get was driving the herst We may never know who hid father was. Mother always said the Pruitts were desendents of Capitan John Pruitt That's all I can remember off the top of my brain for now--which isn't working so great now. a month. not to bad & nice that no cooking or cleaning up!

have Drew & his girl split? I hope to come down this summer--want to drive & go see Reagan then coast then jackson. Amy's a mess. Adrienne's middle son, william, graduates this year & got in NYU.

Will ponder gramps & can't wait to hear what you've found.

My great-grandmother, Ina (Inez) May Fails...If anyone could confirm this I would appreciate it. My great grandmother, Ina May Fails was born in Greenville Nov 5, 1867. Her father was James (Jim) May, and her mother's name was Elizabeth (Maiden name unknown). Ina married John Andrew Fails, also of Greenville and they moved to Moss Point, Mississippi in 1903. Sometime between 1900 and 1904 Ina's mother, Elizabeth, moved to Pensacola, Florida after the death of her husband, James, and lived with a son named John. Elizabeth died in the early 1900's, around 1906, and is believed to be buried in Pensacola. She had other brothers and sisters in the Greenville area named Jim, Minnie and Callie (Caroline) May. I don't have any information on this Jim; Callie married a John Pruitt of Greenville, sister Minnie married a merchant seaman named Motts and moved to England or Scotland and was never heard from again.

Ina's brother, John May, who moved to Pensacola, was married to a woman named Roxie. They had several children--Willie, Claude, Herman, Gabbie and Bogie, and a daughter, Georgia. Bogie was a nickname for Boggan (believed to be a family name). Here Mrs. McNamee quote from an old newspaper clipping about the 2 year old child of Mr and Mrs. Bogan May being buried in Magnolia Cemetery <sup>of</sup> (Kolt City which I believe is Kolb City)--so he may have returned to live in Greenville. Willie May is believed to have moved to Mobile, Al. Georgia married an Italian who had a shipyard in Pensacola--her married name sounded like Parma ~~XXXXXX~~ (Palmer/Parmer).

The May and Fails families were land holders in the Butler County area--were there at the time of the Civil War, some were farmers, some were in the logging business and saw mill trade.

My great grandfather, John Andrew Fails (born Mar 4, 1865) settled in Greenville. He had an older step-sister names Mary Bush who was a teacher. Her husband's name was John Bush and <sup>we</sup> ~~XXXXXX~~ believed ~~XXXXXX~~ he was a preacher. He died around 1906 and may be buried in Greenville. After his death, Mary came to live with my great grandparents in Moss Point, Ms. around 1912. She died in 1915 and is buried in the Union Cemetery in Moss Point along side Ina and John Fails.

My mother was about 6 years old when Aunt Mary arrived in a drey from the train station with several steamer trunks containing all her possessions. The Fails family operated a Drey Service, hauled timber for Dantzler Lumber, Co., operated a horse drawn taxi service and later operated Fails Funeral Home in Moss Point. My mother related that when Aunt Mary arrived she was a little old lady who wore her hair pulled up in a knot on top of her head and wore a red flannel petticoat (she must have arrived in winter). She must have been quite a bit older than her step-brother, John Andrew Fails. Mother also recalls a suitcase, shrouded in mystery, that contained some blood stained clothing of a male and some sort of knife or lance. I don't know if these items belonged to Mary's husband or someone else in the family. Mother said no one ever discussed these items or the events surrounding them in her presence. It was hush-hush! She always speculated that someone in the family had met a violent death, perhaps in a duel. We have never been able to put the pieces together, but it makes for an intriguing story, and much speculation.

~~xxxxxxx~~ If I can get any information on the May-Fails line or the Bush family that may help me solve my family "Riddle" I would appreciate hearing from you. Peggy Hean McLemore, 18 Oakmont Place, Biloxi, Ms. 39531. Please write to Mrs. McLemore if you have information.

Hi Renee,

Sorry for taking so long to get this to you. I am in the middle of redecorating my home office and my printer has not been hooked up. I brought these papers to work and scanned them.

This document opens funny. To open it....
ok

and then you can save it where you want. There are 9 pages. The first 2 are death certificates and the others are what we found in the Greenville, AL library. I have numbered the pages A1 - A3, B, C and D1 - D3. This is how they were put together in the library. Note that D1 begins with "born 1855, died....". It appears that it should have an additional page but this is all there was.

Some of these pages reference Peggy McLemore. This is our cousin. Her mother is Melvina McLeod, sister to Mike's dad and my mother. Note the bloody rag comments.

The 3 of us need to sit down and figure this out. The information is from the files of Mrs. Aubrey C. Cheatham. She had a newspaper column titled "Liberty Community News" and the genealogy section of the Greenville Library is dedicated to her.

We also have a letter from a lady in Florida (I think) written to Mrs. Cheatham that refers to the Fails mystery. Perhaps we can run down some of her relatives who may know more of the story. It appears that none of the later kinfolks knew the whole story. I will have to find that letter but will send it or bring it to you.

I better get back to work but more later. Send me what you have and copies of the pictures.

Also I have the death certificate for John Andrew Fails and will send it later.

Partners for the progressive Rook enjoyed. The teacher, assisted by her young son, Terrel, served them great

these boys have already learned the

MR. JOHN A. FAILS DIES OF INJURIES IN RUNAWAY

Mr. John A. Fails, a respected resident of Moss Point for nineteen years,
died at his home in East Moss Point Sunday from injuries received a few days before when a team of horses he was driving ran away. On the day he was hurt, Mr. Fails was hauling wood, which in some manner became dislodged and fell upon him and the horses, and the injuries he received from the falling wood and the frightened animals resulted in his death. His passing came as a shock to friends and relatives, who entertained hope of his recovery.

Mr. Fails was a native of Greenville, Ala., and was fifty-five years of age. The funeral was held Monday from his residence and services were conducted by the Rev. Thompson. Interment was made in Union Cemetery. Mr. Fails is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. P. L.
McLeod, and other relatives.

Mrs. Eliza Massey Clark, an old resident of the county died at her home in Kreole last week. Mrs. Clark was the widow of Mr. John E. Clark and had reached the age of eighty-nine years. Burial was made in Union Cemetery.

The Pascagoula Elks Lodge held their annual Lodge of Sorrow at the home last Sunday afternoon. This service, held on the first Sunday in December yearly, wherever a lodge of Elks has been organized, is, perhaps one of the most impressive public ceremonies of any fraternal organization. The speaker at the lodge was Mr. H. P. Heidelberg.

Pat. thanks again. Re: Alfred. I found a book on microfilm from LDS "The Fail/Faile/Fails Family Trail" by Welton Ruel Fail. It lists Alfreds parents as William Fail and Elizabeth Feserman (Feshoemurs) m. in Charleston S.C. The book starts with the original immigrant (from place unknown):

John Fail (1656-1712) m. Mary Elam (relict of Gilbert Elam)
| >>>>>
Thomas Fail b. Edgecombe Co., N.C. (wife's name unk)
Lewis Fail b. 5 Feb 1751. Johnson Co., NC m. 1744 Mary Free
| (of Dutch descent)
William Fail (mentioned earlier as father of Alfred)

Pat. there are other children in each generation that I have not named. If you want these names or a Xerox of what I have I would be happy to furnish either. Please advise.

Funeral services are scheduled at 2 p.m. today for Hosea Andrew Fails, 82, prominent Moss Point business man and civic leader, who died early Thursday at Singing River Hospital.

The body was laid out at 4 p.m. Thursday at Jackson County Mortuary, Pascagoula, and will be taken to the First Baptist Church, Moss Point, at 11 a.m. today.

Last rites will be conducted by the Rev. Van Hardin, pastor, assisted by the Revs. M. L. Smith of the First Methodist Church, and Walter Bader of the Presbyterian Church.

He had been in ill health for a year and a half and was admitted to the hospital four days prior to his death.

He was born in Greenville, Ala., and came to Moss Point from Florida, where he was engaged in the lumber business, in 1900 to continue his career in this line.

In 1905 he assumed partnership with the late A. V. Smith in the mortuary business and acquired full ownership of it after Smith's death.

He continued to operate Fails Funeral Service at Moss Point and Pascagoula until 1945 when he sold his interests and retired.

He became a member of F&AM lodge 202 in 1907 and served as worshipful master in 1916 and 1935. In 1953 the lodge honored him with an "H. A. Fails Night" and in 1957 he was presented a 50-year membership pin and certificate.

MRS. LOU LEONARD.

Following an illness of several months, Mrs. Lou Leonard passed away at the home of her son, Mr. A. H. Falls in Moss Point, Sunday evening just before midnight.

Mrs. Leonard was born in Greenville, Ala., November 18, 1858, and was twice married, her late husband James T. Leonard, preceding her to the grave a number of years ago. Mrs. Leonard was of the Baptist faith, having been a member of that church since childhood.

Funeral services were conducted at the Falls home at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, Rev. J. F. Brock, pastor of the Baptist church, officiating. Interment was made in the Machpelah cemetery, many lovely flowers marking her last resting place. Mrs. Leonard is survived by three sons, Messrs. Frank and Nolan Leonard of Prichard, Ala., and A. H.
